What is Euronews?
Launched in 1993, Euronews is the only international news media with a European perspective.

A leading international news media in Europe
Euronews is unapologetically impartial and empowers audiences to form their own opinion.

Available in 17 languages
Albanian, Arabic, Bulgarian, English, French, Georgian, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Serbian, Spanish and Turkish.

News with a “glocal” approach
Euronews has developed 12 distinct cross-platform language editions with a “glocal” approach to news, each of ering bespoke global content tailored to local audiences’ interests. In addition to these, Euronews has launched five branded affiliate channels since 2018: Euronews Albania, Euronews Bulgaria, Euronews Georgia, Euronews Serbia and Euronews Romania.

Majority shareholder

EURONEWS’ TV DISTRIBUTION REACHES

400 M+ households
160 countries

EURONEWS IS DISTRIBUTED IN

EURONEWS REACHES

68% of all households in the EU+UK
145 M+ people worldwide every month

AWARENESS

1/2
51% of Europeans know Euronews
1/2 BN of people around the world know Euronews

DIGITAL REACH (WEBSITE+APP)

www
24.5 M monthly average unique visitors
813 M monthly average page views

SOCIAL MEDIA

293 M monthly average video views
16.5 M monthly average interactions
Euronews complements its core news service with a diverse array of programmes on topics such as climate change, science, high tech, business, but also arts, entertainment, travel and tourism.

Euronews programmes

Euronews Travel is the digital and social destination inspiring people to change their perspective on the world. It covers the latest travel news, destinations, experiences and people’s stories through the lens of cultural curiosity.

Euronews Culture is an immersive, multisensory hub where readers can discover and explore Europe’s cultural movements, from traditional disciplines to the most innovative and thought-provoking creations.

Euronews Green highlights the best ideas from around the globe on how to build a greener future. Its dedicated team of journalists deliver original reporting on climate solutions, nature, eco-innovation and sustainable living.

Euronews Next is a platform that provides business leaders, policymakers and tech enthusiasts with key insights and analysis into the trends that are transforming our economies and reshaping our societies.

The Briefing is Euronews’ weekly political newsletter. Each Thursday, The Briefing brings readers a curated selection of the best and most original stories from the Brussels bureau and the network of correspondents, including in-depth analyses and exclusive interviews.
Euronews is uniquely positioned to cover EU affairs thanks to its Brussels bureau, where a team of 20 media professionals follow the policy and political developments across all the European Union institutions.

With “The Bridge”, a dedicated studio at the heart of the European Parliament, the Brussels bureau has direct access to the voices shaping the EU’s policy-making cycle.

Africanews, part of the Euronews group, is the only pan-African, multilingual, independent and impartial news media. Launched in 2016, Africanews reports breaking news from the ground and delivers unbiased reporting.

With a team of 50 journalists & correspondents representing the diversity of Africa, Africanews showcases all the voices shaping the future of the continent.

Africanews is available both on TV and on digital platforms, in French and in English, reaching 39 million households in over 40 countries, across Africa and beyond.